

Did you know?

- While most people know the mountain range as the Grampians, Aboriginal people have always known this place as Gariwerd
- Gariwerd is a special place central to the dreaming of Aboriginal people, particularly the Djab Wurrung and the Jardwadjali, the traditional people of this area.
- Gariwerd is a very spiritual place for Aboriginal people, because of the dreaming stories and the abundance of food, water and shelter it provides
- Gariwerd contains evidence of numerous occupation sites and 90% of the rock art sites in Victoria.